

Make Your Immigration Experience Your Career Advantage

With your knowledge in legal, health, government, educational, social, community services, or other human service areas, plus your own immigration experience, BESIP can lead to a meaningful career serving newcomers and vulnerable populations.

The Program

The Bridge to Employment in Services for Immigrant Populations (BESIP) Program provides internationally educated professionals with entry to a wide variety of positions in human/social/community services. By the end of the program, participants will have a career advancement plan to progressive positions in their field of interest. You can transfer your skills from your previous education and/or experience to a fulfilling career helping others in need.
