

Congratulatory Greeting

To the esteemed graduates of the C-Women Program, employers, and distinguished attendees,

It is with great pride and admiration that I extend my warmest congratulations to the C-Women graduates who are embarking on an exciting new chapter in the Tech and Coding sectors. Your dedication, resilience, and commitment to your professional journey serve as an inspiration to all. Reaching this milestone is a testament to your hard work, talent, and passion for shaping the future of technology in Canada.

I also want to extend my deepest gratitude to the employers who are here today. Your support and commitment to creating inclusive opportunities for gender-diverse professionals are essential in breaking down barriers and ensuring that the tech sector is a place where everyone has the chance to thrive.

This event is a powerful reminder of the importance of community and collaboration in fostering diversity within the STEM fields. As we continue to remove barriers and build meaningful connections between graduates and employers, we create a brighter, more innovative future for Canada. Together, we can strengthen the representation of gender-diverse professionals in tech, coding, software development, and beyond.

The work being done today to support C-Women is not only crucial for the success of these individuals but for the growth and prosperity of our nation. I am proud to stand with you as we continue to build a more inclusive and equitable tech industry, one that celebrates the diverse voices that shape our communities.

To the C-Women graduates, I offer my heartfelt congratulations and wish you continued success on your journey. Your future is bright, and I have no doubt that you will continue to lead the way, inspire others, and create change.

Let us all work together to support and uplift the incredible talent that is here today, ensuring that Canada's tech industry remains a model of innovation, diversity, and inclusivity.

With deepest respect and warmest wishes,

Judy A. Sgro
